HB Prime Advantage Welcomes a New Founder Partner

HB Prime Advantage, founded initially by James Caan, is delighted to welcome Stuart Taylor as a Founder Partner, a relationship that marks an important step in the growth and development of its business.

The highly experienced specialist advisory business works exclusively with small and medium size enterprises, their founders, owners and stakeholders and in his role at HB Prime Advantage, Stuart will focus on the development of the Financial Services, Energy and Telecoms sectors.

Stuart spent 26 years with Accenture plc, where he operated at partner level for 17 years, spending much of his career helping clients shape, plan and execute complex Business Transformation initiatives to support business growth and efficient delivery of services.

He gained international experience working abroad for over eight years, spending three years in Zurich and Dublin respectively, and also working in Spain, Holland and the US. Stuart has led significant business change programmes, helping clients expand into new markets, develop new services, drive up revenue streams, and develop more efficient operations resulting in business uplifts of up to £100m.

Stuart Taylor, Founder Partner, says “I’m excited to be working with such a driven and experienced team in HB Prime Advantage, and to be able to help with the next phase of the businesses development. The SME market is full of successful entrepreneurs, and I look forward to working with many such clients to help them maximize the return from their business.”

Brian Farrugia, Managing Partner says “I am delighted that Stuart has agreed to join us at HB Prime Advantage where his wealth of experience will be a great asset to the growth of the business moving forward, inspiring growth, creating value and maximising wealth for all our clients.”
